(hereinafter referred to as "Wal-Mart"), does substantial business in the County of Pulaski in the Commonwealth of Virginia, and is in the business of managing and operating retail variety stores known as Wal-Mart, particularly Wal-Mart located at or about 5225 Alexander Road, Dublin, Virginia 24084, in the County of Pulaski, in the Commonwealth of Virginia (hereinafter referred to as "the Store").

9. On or about February 11, 2020, the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, was an invitee of Defendant, Wal-Mart, located at or about 5225 Alexander Road, Dublin, Virginia 24084, in the County of Pulaski, in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

10. At that time and place, Defendant, Wal-Mart, and their respective agents and employees, had duties:

(a) to maintain the property, and the areas adjoining the property to which the invitees and general public was invited, including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, in a reasonably safe condition;

(b) to make reasonable inspections to determine whether any defects, unsafe, or dangerous conditions existed;

(c) to remove and repair within a reasonable time any defect, unsafe, or dangerous conditions, that were known, or in the exercise of ordinary care should have been known, by them, and their employees and agents, to be present or to present a danger to invitees including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas;

(d) to warn invitees and the general public, including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, of any defects, unsafe or dangerous conditions, if unknown, or not reasonably expected to be known, to the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas;

(e) to transport stock and arrange the stock in the display area of the store in a safe and careful manner;

(f) to take other reasonable precautions under the circumstances.

11. Notwithstanding the said duties, Defendant, Wal-Mart, and their respective agents and employees, created and negligently caused and allowed one or more dangerous conditions to exist in, on or about the area of the property; to-wit:

(a) caused and allowed commercial material to be stocked to dislodge from the machinery on which it was loaded;

(b) created a hidden hazard by maneuvering overstocked pallets during normal business hours in the area where business invitees including the plaintiff were expected to walk, without warning the plaintiff of the items being transported;

(c) failed to make reasonable inspections to determine whether any defects, unsafe, or dangerous conditions existed;

(d) failed to secure the load of stock which was being transported into the store for stocking;

(e) failed to prevent the load of stock from falling off of the pallet creating an unsafe, or dangerous condition involving heavy materials; that was known, or in the exercise of ordinary care should have been known, by them, and their employees and agents. The unsafe condition presented a danger to invitees including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas;

(f) failed to warn invitees and the general public, including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, of the existence of the hazard affecting the aisles, making them unreasonably dangerous for invitees, including the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, to walk across; and

(g) failed to take other reasonable precautions under the circumstances.

12. Defendant, Wal-Mart, and their respective agents and employees, each knew, or reasonably should have known, of the existence of this dangerous condition.

13. Defendant, Wal-Mart, and their respective agents and employees, did not warn the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, that this dangerous condition existed.

14. Defendant, Wal-Mart, is vicariously liable for actions, and failures to act, of its respective agents and employees.

15. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence of the Defendant, Wal-Mart, and their respective agents and employees, the contents of the Pallet that was being transported by the agent and/or employee of Wal-Mart fell onto the Plaintiff, Jesse C. Thomas, with great force and violence, causing him to crash into shelving with great force and violence, causing him to sustain serious and permanent bodily injuries; including without limitation, he

ANSWER

COME NOW the defendants, Wal-Mart Stores East, LP, Wal-Mart, Inc., Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., and Wal-Mart Stores East, Inc. (collectively referred to herein as “Wal-Mart” or “defendants”), by counsel, and file this Answer to the allegations contained in the plaintiff’s Complaint and, in support thereof, state as follows:

1. Wal-Mart admits the allegations stated in paragraph 1 of the plaintiff’s Complaint.
2. With regard to paragraph 2, it is admitted that Wal-Mart Stores East, LP, operated the Walmart store located in Dublin, Virginia, on or about the date at issue.
3. Wal-Mart admits the allegations stated in paragraph 3.
4. Wal-Mart denies the allegations set forth in paragraph 4, as stated.
5. Wal-Mart admits the allegations stated in paragraph 5.
6. Wal-Mart denies the allegations set forth in paragraph 6, as stated.
7. Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 7.
8. Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 8.

9. With regard to paragraph 9, it is admitted that the plaintiff was on or near the premises of the Walmart store located in Dublin, Virginia, on or about the date at issue.

10. Paragraph 10 and each of its subparts contain legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10 and each of its subparts state any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(a) Paragraph 10(a) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(a) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(b) Paragraph 10(b) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(b) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(c) Paragraph 10(c) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(c) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(d) Paragraph 10(d) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(d) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(e) Paragraph 10(e) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(e) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

(f) Paragraph 10(f) states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 10(f) states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

11. Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11 and each of its subparts.

(a) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(a).

(b) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(b).

(c) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(c).

(d) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(d).

(e) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(e).

(f) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(f).

(g) Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 11(g).

12. Wal-Mart denies the allegations stated in paragraph 6.

13. Wal-Mart is currently without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations stated in paragraph 13 and, therefore, denies the same.

14. Paragraph 14 states legal conclusions that need not be admitted or denied. To the extent that paragraph 14 states any factual allegations, all such allegations are denied.

15. Wal-Mart denies the allegations set forth in paragraph 15, as stated.

16. All allegations in the Complaint not expressly admitted herein are denied.

Affirmative and Separate Defenses

Wal-Mart states the following as its affirmative and separate defenses:

1. Wal-Mart denies that the plaintiff's incident occurred as described in his Complaint.

2. Wal-Mart denies being guilty of any act of negligence which proximately caused the incident in question.

3. Wal-Mart denies breaching any legal duty owed to the plaintiff.

4. Wal-Mart affirmatively avers and will make the defense at trial that the plaintiff was contributorily negligent and/or assumed the risk of his injuries, thereby barring his recovery herein, should evidence supporting such defenses be developed during the course of discovery or at trial.

5. Wal-Mart affirmatively avers and will make the defense at trial that the condition complained of was open and obvious to the plaintiff and, therefore, required no warning on its part, should such a defense be developed during the course of discovery or at trial.

6. Wal-Mart affirmatively avers and will make the defense at trial that the condition complained of does not amount to an “unsafe condition” or “defect” under Virginia law, should evidence supporting such a defense be developed during the course of discovery or at trial.

7. Wal-Mart affirmatively avers and will make the defense at trial that the plaintiff’s injuries were caused by a third party or parties for whose actions it is not responsible at law, should evidence supporting such a defense be developed during the course of discovery or at trial.

8. Wal-Mart reserves the right to rely upon any and all defenses available to it under the law, specifically including, but not limited to, failure to file suit within the applicable statute of limitations, accord and satisfaction, and/or failure to mitigate damages, should evidence supporting such defenses be developed during the course of discovery or at trial.

9. Wal-Mart denies that the plaintiff was injured and damaged to the extent and with the consequences alleged in the Complaint and, therefore, calls upon the plaintiff for strict proof of all such alleged damages.

10. Wal-Mart demands a trial by jury.
